

World Trade Association of Philadelphia

Scholarship Competition

The World Trade Association of Philadelphia announces a Scholarship Competition for WTA Members and the employees of WTA Member companies and their families.

- Two (2) winners; each receive a $1,000 scholarship.
- Open to high school seniors and undergraduate college students.
- Priority will be given to those studying international trade, maritime studies, and transportation.
- Applicants must have a 3.0 GPA or better.
- Applicants must submit a 3-5 page essay on the chosen theme. This year's theme is, "Explain How International Trade Benefits the Greater Philadelphia Region."
- Deadline: June 30, 2012— applicants must submit their essays, grades, and intended majors to the WTA (see e-mail address, below).

Please e-mail essays and grades to WTA Executive Administrator Deborah Ingravallo at wtaphila@comcast.net For additional information, please call Ms. Ingravallo at 856-642-3957.

The World Trade Association of Philadelphia was established in 1931 with the purpose of promoting international trade. Our members represent every segment of the international transportation industry. See www.wtaphila.com for more.